CharityFocus Retreat May 2009

w e l c o m e

Dear CharityFocus Coordinators,

Thank you for attending our 2009 retreat. Trishna and Guri have organized this wonderful gathering with three primary intentions.

First, it is to share and support each other's journeys of service. When the Buddha was asked of the most important asset on a spiritual journey, he unequivocally responded: "company of noble friends." Ten years ago, CharityFocus held that humble intention at its center and this retreat is no exception.

Second, our intention is to share stories and ideas from CharityFocus projects. With thousands of volunteers who have served locally, hundreds of thousands of members, and millions of Internet users who consume our inspirational content, we never have a dull moment! ☺

Third, it is to hold space for synergies and "step it up" possibilities to emerge. :) Instead of the traditional plan-and-execute model, we work in the search-and-amplify realm; and given our social-capital driven infrastructure, we are uniquely positioned to nurture the field of gift-economy.

To preserve a small group feel – unlike most of our other events ☺ -- we have limited this retreat to a few coordinators. On Sunday morning, though, a few close friends of CharityFocus will join us to share some of their inspirations.

In the coming pages of this document you will find information on the agenda, participants, guest profiles, location details, and opportunities to help out.

Thank you for being a partner in service. I feel blessed to be volunteering with all of you.

Nestled in the private Berryessa Estates, located on the border of Napa and Lake Counties, is this charming getaway property that also contains picnic grounds with custom made stone barbeque and sink. The house has vaulted ceilings with skylights in the kitchen and bathroom; stainless steel appliances, fully appointed living room, kitchen and fireplace. On the elevated deck you can pull up a chase lounge and bask in the Napa Valley sun while overlooking beautiful mountain views. An elaborate custom bathroom and rustic design make this a great retreat from your daily routine in a quiet and secluded community. This 4 bedroom/3 bathroom house is 3000 square feet and rests on 3/4 of an acre that has easy access to Putah Creek, the main inlet to Berryessa.

With a group of 15, this is going to be a cozy weekend. 😊 If you'd like to tent in the backyard, please let us know right away! The weather is expected to be in the 70's next weekend. Yay! However, we still advise everyone to bring sleeping bags.

There is NO internet at this place, so be forewarned! 😊 Of course, we will have a projector, screen, microphone, speaker, TV/DVD player, and guitar and a massage table. 😊

volunteer

In the spirit of all things CharityFocus, this is an all volunteer-run event. If you'd like to pitch in, here are some of the volunteer opportunities for the weekend:

- Record Meeting Minutes
- Take Photographs
- Prepare a Meal (if you have ideas for a simple one-dish-wonder!)
- Help With Clean-up After a Meal
- Setup Tea/Coffee for 5pm Break
- Pre-Friday: Planning, Grocery Shopping, Etc.

If you'd like to help with these items, or have other ideas, please email the retreat organizers (Trishna and Guri) at: retreat09@charityfocus.org

To reach all participants of this retreat, email retreat09-all@charityfocus.org
